Auction Sales, Future Days, PETITION FOR ELECTION ON BONDS FOR ROADS

ON BONDS FOR ROADS

Prominent Augusta County Residents
Want $1,000,000 to Improve
Highways.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Saunton, Va., January 30.—A number of influential men of Augusta county have set out to overcome the long-standing prejudice existing in the county against issuing bonds for any purpose, the county never having incurred a bonded debt for any purpose. They are passing around for signatures a petition to the Board of Supervisors asking the board to order an election on a $1,000,000 bond issue, to secure money to macadamize the 300 miles of public roads in the county.

These men are counting on meeting strong opposition, both among countymen and with the board. So strongly do the members of the board oppose new ventures, it was with great difficulty they were induced to undertake the building of new roads, or rather the macadamizing of old roads with convicts; but they finally yielded to pressure, and for about five years have had a constant force in the county of from fifty to sixty convicts, and some first-class roads have been constructed.

The progressive men at the head of the present movement hope to bring such pressure to bear on the supervisors as to induce them to order the election.

The county now spends from the yearly tax about $80,000 on roads by the prostree to bear on the supervisors as to induce them to order the election.
